Explanatory Notes:

Notes to Form of Proxy

- All capitalised but undefined terms in the Form of Proxy and these Notes shall have the same meaning as set out in the Scheme Document made available to shareholders on or around 20 March 2026.
- Full details of the resolution to be proposed at the Court Meeting, with explanatory notes, are set out in the Notice of Court Meeting. Before completing the Form of Proxy, please also read the sections entitled "Action to be Taken" in the Scheme Document.
- A member is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to exercise all or any of the member's rights to attend, speak and vote at the Court Meeting. A proxy need not be a member of the Company but must attend the Court Meeting for the member's vote to be counted. Proxies may only be appointed using the procedures set out on the Form of Proxy and in these Notes.
- The Form of Proxy gives your proxy(ies) full rights to attend, speak and vote. If you wish to restrict the rights of your proxy(ies), please cross out either or both of the words 'speak' or 'vote' as appropriate.
- Please sign in the boxes to show how you wish your vote to be cast. The form must be signed in order to be valid. However, if you sign more than one box, the Form of Proxy will be invalid. Unless otherwise instructed, the person appointed as proxy will exercise their discretion as to any other business (including amendments to the Scheme and any procedural business, including any resolution to adjourn) which may come before the Court Meeting.
- If you wish to appoint a proxy other than the Chairman of the Court Meeting, please insert their name in the space provided and delete 'the Director is present at the Court Meeting'.
- To appoint more than one proxy, you should either photocopy the Form of Proxy or request additional Form(s) of Proxy and indicate next to each proxy's name the number of shares in relation to which you authorise them to act as your proxy. If you have appointed multiple proxies please also mark the box where indicated. To obtain additional Forms of Proxy, please contact the Shareholder Helpline on the number indicated in Note 21 below. If a member appoints more than one proxy to attend the Court Meeting, each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by the member.
- If you own shares jointly, any one shareholder may sign the Form of Proxy. If more than one joint holder submits a Form of Proxy, the instruction given by the first listed on the shareholder register will prevail.
- Any corporation which is a member can appoint one or more corporate representatives who may exercise on its behalf all of its powers as a member provided that if two or more representatives purport to vote in respect of the same shares:
 - if they purport to exercise the power in the same way as each other, the power is treated as exercised in that way; and
 - in other cases, the power is treated as not exercised.
- To change your proxy instructions simply submit a new Form of Proxy using the methods set out in these Notes. Note that the time for receipt of a Form of Proxy (see above) also apply in relation to amended instructions; any amended Form of Proxy received after the relevant cut-off date and time will be disregarded. Any alterations to the Form of Proxy should be initialled.
- In order to revoke a proxy instruction, you will need to inform the Company by sending a signed hard copy notice clearly stating your intention to revoke your proxy appointment to the Company's registrar. In the case of a member who is an individual the revocation notice must be under the hand of the appointer or of their attorney duly authorised in writing or in the case of a member which is a company, the revocation notice must be executed under its common seal or under the hand of an officer of the company or an attorney duly authorised. Any power of attorney or any other authority under which the revocation notice is signed (or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority) must be included with the revocation notice.

- The revocation notice must be received before the time of the holding of the Court Meeting or any adjournment thereof. If you attempt to revoke your proxy appointment but the revocation is received after the time specified then your proxy appointment will remain valid.
- Appointment of a proxy does not preclude you from attending the Court Meeting and voting in person. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the Court Meeting in person, your proxy appointment will automatically be terminated.
- CREST members who wish to appoint a proxy for the Court Meeting (and any adjournment(s) thereof) may do so through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service by using the procedures described in the CREST Manual. CREST personal members or other CREST sponsored members, and those CREST members who have appointed a voting service provider(s), should refer to their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s), who will be able to take the appropriate action on their behalf.
- In order for a proxy appointment or instruction made using the CREST service to be valid, the appropriate CREST message (a "CREST Proxy Instruction") must be properly authenticated in accordance with the specifications of Euroclear and must contain the information required for such instruction, as described in the CREST Manual. The message (regardless of whether it constitutes the appointment of a proxy, or is an amendment to the instruction given to a previously appointed proxy) must, in order to be valid, be transmitted so as to be received by Computershare not less than 48 hours (excluding non-working days) before the time fixed for the Court Meeting (or adjourned meeting). For this purpose, the time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the time stamp applied to the message by the CREST Application Host) from which Computershare is able to retrieve the message by enquiry to CREST in the manner prescribed by CREST. After this time, any change of instructions to proxies appointed through CREST should be communicated to the appointee through other means.
- CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service providers should note that Euroclear UK & International Limited does not make available special procedures in CREST for any particular messages. Normal system timings and limitations will therefore apply in relation to the input of CREST Proxy Instructions. It is the responsibility of the CREST member concerned to take (or, if the CREST member is a CREST personal member or sponsored member or has appointed a voting service provider(s), to procure that his/her CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s) take(s)) such action as shall be necessary to ensure that a message is transmitted by means of the CREST system by any particular time. In this connection, CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service providers are referred to, in particular, to those sections of the CREST Manual concerning practical limitations of the CREST system and timings.
- The Company may treat as invalid a CREST Proxy Instruction in the circumstances set out in the CREST Regulations.
- If you are an institutional investor, you may be able to appoint a proxy electronically via the Proximity platform, a process which has been agreed by the Company and approved by the Company's registrar. For further information regarding Proximity, please go to www.proximity.io. Your proxy must be lodged no later than 10.00 a.m. (London time) on 13 April 2026 or, if the Court Meeting is adjourned, no later than 48 hours (excluding non-working days) before the time fixed for the Court Meeting in order to be considered valid. For further information regarding Proximity, please visit www.proximity.io. Before you can appoint a proxy via this process you will need to have agreed to Proximity's associated terms and conditions. It is important that you read these carefully as you will be bound by them, and they will govern the electronic appointment of your proxy.
- Where two or more Forms of Proxy are delivered for use in respect of the same shares, the one which has been delivered last (regardless of when it was signed or by what means it was delivered) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the others which have been delivered. If it cannot be determined which Form of Proxy was delivered last, none of the forms shall be treated as valid.
- You may not use any electronic address provided either on the Form of Proxy, in these Notes, in the Notice of Court Meeting or in any related documents to communicate with the Company for any purposes other than those expressly stated.
- If you have any questions relating to the Forms of Proxy (or appointment of a proxy online or electronically) or any administrative matters in connection with your Company securities and the Proposal, please call the Shareholder Helpline between 8.30 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. (London time) Monday to Friday (except UK public holidays) on +44 (0)370 707 1469. Please note that calls may be monitored or recorded and the Shareholder Helpline cannot provide financial, legal or tax advice or advice on the merits of the Proposal.
